How the contest works

- Your local public library will choose a finalist for each of the five grade categories.
- Local finalists will each receive their bookmark framed.
- The winning entries from each library will be entered into the district-wide contest.
- The five district winners will be printed for distribution throughout FVRLibraries and the winners will receive an art supply kit and 4 art lessons.
- The winning bookmarks become property of the library district and will be displayed on the library's website.
- This event is not sponsored or endorsed by any school district.
