Library Board Names Three Finalists for District Executive Director

VANCOUVER, Wash. – Following a nationwide search for its new executive director, the Fort Vancouver Regional Library District Board of Trustees has narrowed the field of candidates to three finalists:

Peter Bromberg - Associate Director for Public Services - Salt Lake County Library Services, West Jordan, Utah

Amelia Shelley - Executive Director - Garfield County Public Library District, Rifle, Colorado

Jon Worona - Division Manager - San José Public Library, San José, California

The candidates' individual statement documents are available as .pdfs at <http://new.fvrl.org/newsroom>.

The finalists will visit the library district August 10-12 for interviews, tours and to participate in three public "meet and greet" events:

Monday, Aug. 10 – 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Stevenson Community Library – Lower-level Gallery

120 NW Vancouver Ave., Stevenson, Wash.

Monday, Aug. 10 – 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Vancouver Community Library – Columbia Room, Level 1

901 C Street, Vancouver, Wash.

Tuesday, Aug. 11 – 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Three Creeks Community Library – Community Room

800-C NE Tenney Rd., Vancouver, Wash.

Attendees may fill out comment forms at the events about the candidates, for use by the board in their final selection. Questions about the candidate events may be directed to district headquarters at (360) 906-5000.
